
Turning the Hearts of the Children: Early Māori Leaders in the Mormon Church

Selwyn Kātene

$39.99

What inspired so many Māori in the 1880s to question the mainstream churches and flock to an American religion — the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, or Mormon church? How did the Mormons encourage Māori leaders to pioneer the development of the Church in Aotearoa in the 20th century?

1 Add to basket

ISBN: 978-1-927242-62-9

Categories: Biography & memoir, New Zealand history, Non-fiction, Religion

Tags: Māori, Mormon

Turning the Hearts of the Children

EARLY MĀORI LEADERS IN THE MORMON CHURCH

edited by SELWYN KĀTENE

Contents

WĀHINGA KŌRERO: FOREWORD Sir Mason Durie 7

KUPU WHAKATAKI: INTRODUCTION Selwyn Kātene 9

I The Māori Lehi: Hirini Whaanga 1828–1905
Jared Christy & Robert Joseph 25

II Chieftainess of Ngāti Rehua: Raihi Ngāwaka c.1830–1933
Rosanna Whaanga 49

III Between Two Worlds: Whatahoro Jury 1841–1923
Rāwiri Smith 63

IV Te Whakapono o te Kuia: Ngāhuia Chase 1857–1943
Kahuwaero Kātene 79

V A Man of his Time: Percy Going 1868–1940
Patricia Going 93

VI Māori High Priest: Hōhepa Heperi 1870–1964
Wiremu (Bill) Heperi 109

VII Diplomat and Warrior: Te Rāwhiti Paerata 1876–1931
Te Rāwhiti (Boysie) Paerata 123

VIII Saviour on Mount Zion: Stuart Meha 1878–1963
Arapata T Meha 137

IX He Matakite — a Visionary: Wetekia Elkington 1879–1957
Nolamay Campbell 155

X Imperative of Pilgrimage: Sidney Christy 1883–1955
Huia Kaporangi Koziol 171

XI Aunty Polly: Pare Takana (Duncan) 1892–1974
Mākere Reeves 189

XII He Manu-Iri-i-te-Rangi — Bird of the Heavens: Tūrake Manuirirangi 1896–1969
Hōri Manuirirangi Jnr 205

NGĀ KAITUHI: CONTRIBUTORS 217

HE PAPAKUPU: GLOSSARY: 220

KUPU TOHU: INDEX 223