July 2010

Dear Friends of Tyburn Monastery,

On the feast of St. Benedict, 11th July, Holy Mass will be offered here for all our friends and benefactors. We bring you all our warmest greetings as we write to tell you some of the many blessings we have received this year.

In March the gift of the beautiful statue of Mary of Ngakuru, sculpted by Michael Pervan, was delivered and placed in its shrine in the Rosary Garden. A few days later on the feast of the Annunciation we gathered in the garden with about 100 people for the unveiling and blessing of the statue which was preceded by Holy Mass celebrated by Bishop Denis Browne and several priests. The statue, the first sculpted in carrara marble by a kiwi in this country, is unique - gracious, full of life and movement - a gently smiling Mother holding out her Child to all who would come to him.

APPENDIX 3: SEMI STRUCTURED INTERVIEWS

Can you tell me about yourself and what your religion means to you?

How did you hear about the monastery? Why did you choose to visit this monastery? How many times did you visit the monastery?

Can you tell me how you benefited from going to the monastery? Would you recommend the monastery to other people? Can you explain the nature of your experience at the monastery?

Do you think it is right for people, such as visitors, to go to the monastery where all the nuns are secluded? Did you interact with the nuns/other visitors?

Should donations be given to the monastery?

Project Title: The Impacts of Tourism in the Monastery and Retreat Houses in New Zealand - A Case Study of the Tyburn Nuns

Research Aims: To explore the impact of tourism on monastic life

This project aims to get an insight into the monastic life of the Tyburn Nuns and how the presence of visitors and retreat pilgrims affects the pious life.

Research Process: You will be contacted by the researcher (Sanaya Rodrigues) and an interview date will be set. During the interview (approx 60 minutes) a consent form will be signed and questions answered, and the interview will be digitally taped recorded. There will also be a questionnaire to be filled.

All contact and personal details will be protected through the use of pseudonyms within the research paper. Only the researcher and supervisor will have access to the information provided in the interview, questionnaire, all notes, tapes and the research paper written. Afterwards, all questionnaires and notes will be destroyed and tapes erased. A copy of the paper will be kept on file but will be treated with the strictest confidentiality.

The final copy of the thesis will be submitted to the University of Waikato and may be used for academic research. All participants will have access to the final copy of the thesis.

Declaration to Participants

If you take part in the study, you have the right to:

- Refuse to answer any particular question, and to withdraw from the study by 20th Oct 2010.
- Ask any further questions about the study that occurs to you during your participation.
- Be given access to a summary of the findings from the study when it is concluded.

If you have any questions about this research project you can contact the researcher on e-mail 'samr1@student.waikato.ac.nz. The project is being supervised by Prof. Alison McIntosh and she can be contacted at email "mcintosh@waikato.ac.nz" or at:
