Tēnā koutou,

Thank you for your time and availability to present during The Matariki Rangahau series. Could you kindly share the attached information with your networks.

The Rangahau Series is a great opportunity for development and networking for our Māori and Pacific workforce.

We hope to make this an annual event – possibly hosted by different districts.

Kia tau iho te tōmairangi atawhai o te wāhi ngaro ki runga I a koe. Tēnei a mihi manahau, a mihi matakuikui te rere nei.

Matariki Rangahau Series mai I te 27 ō Pipiri, 4th, 11th, 18th ka mutu I te 25 ō Hōngongoi.

Are you keen to learn about rangahau? Or an experienced Māori researcher?

Come along to network, learn, and be supported on your rangahau journey.

Free workshops will cover the basics of research and evaluation including:

- Kaupapa Māori Research, design + methods.
- How to get started, keep going and get to the finish line.
- Funding and scholarships.
- Handy tips + links with a Māori research network.

The Series is being run by the Waikato DHB Māori Research team.

Kanohi ki te kanohi sessions will include kai and be at Waikato Hospital.
